How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called "Average Daily Balance" (excluding new purchases). The interest charges for a billing cycle are computed by dividing the Annual Percentage Rate (APR) by 365 or 366 (leap year) and applying to the Average Daily Balance. To get the Average Daily Balance, We take the beginning balance of Your account each day, subtract any payments, credits, non-accruing fees, and unpaid interest charges. We do not add in any new purchases. This give Us the daily balance. Then We add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. To avoid incurring an interest charge on the balance of purchases reflected on Your monthly statement and on any new purchases appearing on Your next monthly statement, You must pay the Outstanding balance shown on Your monthly statement on or before the Payment Due Date. The grace period for the Outstanding Balance of purchases extends to the Payment Due Date.
